Peru owed Englishmen $200,000,000 before she went to war with Chile. It is now interesting to speculate upon the chance those Britons have to get a settlement.

Father Moran, of Ware, Mass., having forbidden dancing among his parishioners, stood at the door of a ball room and ordered them away as they came. Being driven off by an officer, he purchased a ticket and entered the hall, whereupon the assemblage dispersed, leaving the supper untasted.

By the recent death of Prince William Wurtemberg's infant and only son, the succession to the Wurtemberg throne is again thrown open to the Roman Catholic branch of the reigning family—a fact which appears to be provocative of considerable popular uneasiness in that essentially Protestant realm.

New Hampshire experienced a shock of earthquake on Friday. These shocks, by the way, are becoming so common in the East that California can no longer brag of an earthquake specialty. We can afford to lose an earthquake or two so long as the East does not send us any of its hurricanes and bolts of lightning.

Another servant of Washington has been dug out of obscurity. Her name is Sallie Hunter; she is 115 years old, and, of course, colored. Where the father of his country raised the wind to provide for his standing army of domesticities, it is too late to conjecture. At least a thousand of the black attendants upon the first President have died within the past fifty years, and those remaining still seem to equal in number the veterans of the Mexican war.

It is remarkable that the working classes of Germany have taken little part in the anti-Jewish agitation. At a stormy meeting in Berlin the other day, in which the Jews were denounced as people "unfit to mix with other races," a workman had the courage to state that "after seventeen years' hard work in Berlin, although a Christian himself, his experience was that the Jewish employers had, as a rule, treated him far better than his co-religionists." He accordingly proposed a resolution "in favor of religious liberty." The result was that the meeting hissed him and turned him out.

A very ingenious departure in the insurance line has been started in Cincinnati, where a "Matrimonial Benefit Company" has been incorporated. Throwing aside all the traditional schemes of the life insurance business, this company proposes to benefit its members at their marriage instead of death, considering, no doubt, that, whereas upon entering the marriage state the exchequer must oftentimes need replenishing, after death money would prove of very little practical use, at least so far as the deceased is concerned, other than to pay the expenses of his obsequies. The laws of the association call for an initiation fee of $5, and a general assessment of $1 upon the marriage of a member.

The Silver State of Saturday says Naches, the Puute Chief, is in town today. He says he is very well satisfied with the quarantine established by the railroad company, and thinks it would benefit the Indians if it should be kept in force for an indefinite period. He says many of them neglect everything and will not work, fish or hunt so long as they are permitted to ride on cars, preferring to go from station to station begging for something to eat, to staying at one place and earning their own living. He hopes Division Superintendents Coddington and Free will not revoke the quarantine order for a while, and only give Indians, who have business at points along the road, permission to ride.

The Courier-Journal's special from Owingsville, Ky., says: George Prolat, a bachelor aged 70 years, and his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Goodpaster, some years older, have lived together in this county five miles from the city for several years. They lived alone. For some time Mrs. Goodpaster has been paralyzed and unable to get out of her bed. On Thursday evening Prolat started to throw on a back-log to build up the fire. In throwing it on the fire he fell with it, and being unable to rise was burned to death. His sister got out of bed and dragged her brother's body out of the fire and managed to get back in bed. There she was compelled to lie during the whole night, facing the body of her dead brother, unable to move at all or make any noise. She was compelled, also to see cats eating the flesh from the face of her brother.

A Five Dollar Prayer.

Thursday morning Rev. George R. Davis offered the prayer in the Senate Chamber at Carson at the opening of the day's session. It was very short, but it made more than one legislator turn red. "Oh, God!" prayed the bold parson, "Our Father, Ruler of the universe, thou knowest we are beset with many dangers and temptations; therefore, we pray thee that these Senators may not gauge their votes by the rule of any monopoly, but for the people. For Christ's sake, amen."

As Mr. Davis left the chamber Senator King jumped up and offered a resolution that prayers be hereafter dispensed with by the Senate.

On motion of Senator McConnell the resolution was laid on the table.

For that prayer Mr. Davis receives $5 of the State's money. The prayer, undoubtedly had one redeeming feature—brevity. The outrageous pun endeavored to be perpetrated by the reverend gentleman was considered by some as an insult to the Senate. To say the least it has a tinge of levity about it that appears a little out of place.

A Grave Question.

It can hardly be considered of tremendous consequence whether French school rooms have crucifixes in them or whether they have not. The presence or absence of a bit of wood of a particular shape would not, one may believe, materially aid teaching or study any more than would the presence of a coal scuttle or a poker of a particular shape. Yet what a tremendous rumpus was kicked up over this foolish matter in France recently! It will nigh brought on a Cabinet crisis, caused several high officials to tender their resignation, and precipitated something like a riot in the Chamber of Deputies. And the drollest thing in the matter was that the greatest excitement drew not so much out of the question whether the crucifixes should be removed from the schools, as out of the manner in which they were removed. The terrible fact was revealed that in moving these particular pieces of wood they were treated like furniture; and, more terrible still, a member of the Chamber of Deputies referred to them in a speech as "furniture." And France is rent and torn and politically tempest tossed.

The New Bible.

"According to statement," says the Pall Mall Gazette, the revisers of the New Testament have made alterations which will excite some consternation and not a little regret among all those who are familiar with the authorized version. In the Lord's prayer, the concluding petition, "Deliver us from evil," is changed into, "Deliver us from the evil one." Half a dozen of the most familiar texts in the New Testament will disappear altogether. The question, "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" is metamorphosed into, "What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own life?" "Hades" is substituted for "hell" in two well-known passages. The inscription on the altar, "To the Unknown God," will read, "To an Unknown God." Apart from these textual alterations and omissions, the revisers have abolished the divisions into chapters and verses and printed the new version in paragraphs.

Procrastination.

The story of the unhappy lovers of Romeo and Juliet was repeated the other day in Stuttgart, Germany, according to the Paris correspondent of the London Times. As he states the matter, a student was in love with a very pretty girl. He had repeatedly written to her parents for their consent to the marriage, but receiving no answer he poisoned himself at the house where the girl was stopping. The next day the letter came from the parents giving the much desired permission, but it was too late. At the funeral the girl also poisoned herself—whether out of the same phial deponent sayeth not—and fell lifeless into the arms of one of the choristers. The moral to be drawn by procrastinating parents is obvious; but if the lover had procrastinated a little longer all would have been well.

The only Postoffice in the world which continues to be respected by pilferers is the letter-box in the Magellan Straights—a simple cask chained to the rock. A passing vessel sends a boat, takes what letters there may be and deposits its own. The Postoffice is under the protection of the navies of the civilized world, and, though it has been established for many years, it has never been robbed.

The S. F. Post says: "We hope the local press will henceforward treat the sand lot with silent contempt. This city wants an end of agitation, and a closer application to industrial pursuits." Had the press adopted that plan several years ago it would have been far better for the entire coast.

NEWS ITEMS.

The recent storm did immense damage in Washington Territory and Oregon.

The Detroit Free Press wishes to know why colored ladies do not wear white court-plaster on their chins.

It is reported that Tom Fitch, the silver tongued orator, who formerly lived in this State, has made 1,000,000 out of Arizona mining property.

The Humboldt river is having its boom. It is higher now than it has been for the last five years, and still coming. The cry is "Let 'er come."

The Los Angeles people desire the southern portion of California to be set off as a new State, with that city as the capital, but if the Legislature will give them a Normal School they will be satisfied.

It looks now as though the Irish question was about to be settled. Instead of the "landlord must go," it has turned out that the Irish members "must go," or behave themselves while in the House.

Charles S. Neal & Co., stock brokers in San Francisco have suspended. Mr. Neal is Secretary of the Stock Board. The failure is for only $13,000 and it is expected the firm will be able to worry through.

According to the Mail the religious people of Stockton seem to have a queer idea of the Son of Man. In the Presbyterian Church of that place there is the following motto: "Jesus the Asterisk of Bethlehem."

The connecting point between the Southern Pacific Railroad and the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroads has been fixed at a point eleven miles west of Deming, N. M., and connections will be made March 10th.

A new paper is to be started in Ogden by Mr. E. A. Littlefield of the Elko Post. Mr. Littlefield has nerve, energy and experience, and if a paper will pay at all in that section of Mormonland his venture will prove a success.

More than one thousand passengers per day, on the average of 366 days, landed at the port of New York from foreign countries during the year 1880, nearly 900 to every 1,000 were aliens who came to seek homes in the Western Continent.

San Francisco is at last securing some of the Arizona trade. Joseph Goldwater of that territory has traded $125,000 worth with the wholesome merchants of that city, and Joseph didn't pay a cent although he got away with the goods. He had a partner.

A covetous little girl in Titusville, Pa., took a litter of puppies, which she prized highly, to a next door neighbor and wished to exchange them for a newly-arrived baby. She was greatly disappointed when her offer was politely, but firmly declined.

Charles De Haven, a circus clown, made sport of Robert Parrish in a Kentucky barroom by pulling his ears and playing various tricks of the sawdust ring on him. Parrish warned him against continuing the fun, and then killed him with a knife.

The road from Jericho to Jerusalem, where the man fell among thieves and was taken care of by the Good Samaritan, is still infested by the same kind of malefactors, ugly-looking Arabs. The traveling editor of the Baltimore American lately encountered a gang of them, and got clear by giving the vagabonds a quantity of tobacco.

President Grevy of France has a salary of $240,000 per annum. His regular salary is $120,000, to which is added $60,000 for receptions and $60,000 for traveling expenses. As the President is not given to grand balls and prefers to remain home, it is estimated, as he has no rent to pay, that he is laying up a snug sum against the next revolution.

A Swiss girl of eighteen years reached St. Louis about three weeks ago, and went to the house of a cousin, who had been expecting her. She was cheerful for a day or two, when she began to pine for her native land. She grew worse rapidly, complaining of pain around her heart, and in two weeks she died, her only ailment being homesickness.

One hundred and fifty thousand acres of land in Missouri have been sold to a Scotch land company, and it will be divided among Scotch farmers, who are coming over in the early Spring. That is an immigration that may be welcomed, for it is sure to prosper and benefit all its surroundings. Where a Scotchman cannot succeed, must be a poorer spot than any yet discovered on this continent.

Mr. Beecher says that one-half the human family are eaters, not producers. Speaking of immigration, he says there is no fear so long as our institutions have the assimilating power, and when the lion eats the kid he does not turn into kid, but the latter turns into lion. When the children of immigrants get through the public school they are all Americans. The greatest needed revival is not of religion, of temperance or of commerce, but of common schools.

LETTER FROM CARSON,

Carson, Feb. 8, 1881.

ED. JOURNAL:—The Legislature is slowly grinding away, keeping well up with the work. Every measure is being closely scanned, and there is but little show for many bad bills to become laws.

POLL TAX MATTERS.

Last year there were 12,970 poll taxes collected by the assessors of the several counties. There are 19,547 registered voters in the State, which shows that the assessors failed to collect 6,577 poll taxes, not counting Chinamen and foreigners. There are over 4,000 Chinese in the State, and fully 6,000 men not citizens. There is no question but that the State and the counties failed to receive within $40,000 of what should justly have been the proper amount of revenue from this source. This shows that even under the old pernicious fee system the revenue officers have not performed their duty. In order that the revenue from this source may be had a bill is now pending making the payment of a poll tax the prerequisite to the right of registration. The Constitution allows this, and many members feel that something must be done to prevent the loss of the major portion of one of the State's sources of revenue.

THE WARDEN FIGHT.

Mr. Wm. Garrard is the new Warden of the State Prison, and will take Gen. Batterman's place next Monday. The contest in the Joint Convention on Monday was quite exciting. Had the supporters of Kelly gone to Joe Jones, Garrard would have been beaten, and Jones elected. It was not in the pins for Kelly to win. All three of the candidates were looked upon with great favor, and everybody conceded that the State was certain of a good Warden. The selection of the Warden, however, should be left with the Board of Prison Commissioners, and not to the Legislature. As the law now stands the Board can have but little to say in the management of the prison, and yet there is chance for a conflict. The experiment of election by the Legislature has proven a failure. It has been the cause of more heart-burnings than any other one thing during the session; has delayed and retarded legislation, and takes up more time than the choosing of a Senator. The impression is general that a bill should be passed replacing the Warden and control of the Prison back into the power of the Commissioners, where it properly belongs.

NOTES.

The bullion-penalty bill has not yet been reported from the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The bill reducing rates of fare on the C. P. to 4 cents per mile comes up in the Senate to-morrow. The Co. claims that their entire local passenger receipts in Nevada for last year only amounted to $66,000, a showing for 452 miles without parallel in the history of the world. The average rate now charged is 8 cents per mile.

NING POW.

Outrunning an Avalanche.

The Bodie Free Press tells the following story:

H. S. Sanford, better known of late as the Tigra Trotter, arrived Wednesday evening from Lundy, having come down from Toga, on the summit of the Sierras, to Mill Creek on Monday. In his descent from the summit he suddenly felt the earth quiver and heard a rumbling noise far up the steep above, and on turning his head saw a huge avalanche coming down after him. It was still several miles to the bottom of the declivity he was descending, and Sanford concluded, from the longitude of the avalanche, that his only safety was in outrunning his pursuer, and accordingly he let out his snow-shoes a link or two. In nine seconds he had opened such a gap between himself and the avalanche that the latter became ashamed of its eighty-miles-an-hour gate, and in its chagrin turned off and demolished a small forest of tamarack trees. Before reaching the base of the mountain, and while still going at the top of his speed, in kicking up his heels in honor of his victory, Sanford lost his balance (and his snow-shoes) and plunged into the canyon below head-first, sustaining a severe cut across the top of the head.

Where our Forests go To.

To make our incense matches, 300,000 cubic feet of the best pine is required every year. Lasts and boot trees take 500,000 cords of birch, beech and maple, and the handles of tools 500,000 more. The making of our bricks consume 2,000,000 cords of wood, or what would cover with forests about 50,000 acres of land. Telegraph poles already put up represent 800,000 trees, and their annual repairs consume 300,000 more. The ties of our railroads consume annually thirty years' growth of 74,000 acres, and to fence our railroads would cost $45,000,000, with a yearly expenditure of $15,000,000 for repairs.

It is said that some prospectors have struck rich placer mines near Stein's mountain, in Humboldt county. The fact that gold exists all over that part of the country has been known for years; but scarcity of water in that locality renders placer mining practically impossible.

Undignified.

We understand that a portion of the Storey county delegation in the Legislature were very wrathful because the Washoe county delegation voted for a Washoe county man for Warden, instead of Kelley, a Storey county man; and openly declared that they would vote against every proposition introduced by a Washoe delegate. We are not so sure but those who made the threat would vote as they threaten to do, anyhow. At all events, we presume that upon second thought the gentlemen will see that such feelings or expressions, scarcely comport with the dignity that should be attached to his position.

Monday afternoon Alexander Sharov, the popular and successful manager of the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, was married by the Rev. Dr. Boers, at that gentleman's residence, to Miss Charlotte A. Romer, a beautiful and accomplished lady.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mat Rapp, of Steamboat, spent a few hours in town yesterday.

About twenty of the Bodie Knights joined the excursion party at Carson yesterday.

Mr. Gerrard, the new Warden claims his residence in Reno; so Washoe has got the prison at last.

It is reported that Wm. Stopher, formerly of Reno, has been sent to the Asylum from Placer county, Cal.

Mr. Geo. Ashley, a leading musician of Bodie, accompanied the Knights' excursion, to the city yesterday.

Geo. Linniger, has bought out Haller's butcher shop, on Virginia street, and will continue business at the old stand.

Beautiful shell cameo studs, worth $35 a set, price $9 at Uncle Harris', 221 Kearney street, between Bush and Sutter.

W. J. Marsh, an old Renoite, was in town yesterday. He returned from the east about a month ago, and settled in Carson Valley.

Capt. Johnson favors a reduction of the wages of our school marm to $25 a month, on the ground that they are no better than he is.

The malt house of the Crystal Peak Brewery, near Verdi was destroyed by fire Monday night about 10 o'clock. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

It is now said the reason that Joe Jones got defeated for Warden was that Assemblyman Lewers, the gentleman from Ormsby, put him in nomination in the joint convention, and supported him for that position.

Three men, in town Monday night, got so merry over the defeat of Joe Jones for Warden, that they went and wallowed in a mud-hole, in the street near the railroad track. A new suit of clothes each, cost them $30 apiece.

It is said that Assemblyman Ross Lewers will oppose any and all legislation for the relief of the Franktown sufferers unless the Bowers Mansion is purchased by the State and converted into a sort of free lunch establishment.

The Bodie Free Press says that, Gen. J. R. Kittrell contemplates removing to Leadville. It was reported a short time ago that he intended taking up his residence in Reno, but it seems that he is thinking of changing his mind.

Assemblyman Lewers from Ormsby, objects to the State assisting the Franktown sufferers. He says if the people want to get their houses back let them pack them back. The gentleman from Ormsby thinks that $15,000 will cover the whole loss.

It will be observed from the proceedings that the Board of County Commissioners will allow the Sheriff only one deputy. Having only one deputy and no jailor is rather tough on the Sheriff of this county. In fact, it is not sufficient.

Ross Lewers, the member of the Assembly from Ormsby, assaulted R. L. Fulton the editor of the Gazette, in a saloon in Carson yesterday on account of the article and cartoon published in that paper Monday. Mr. Lewers escaped without serious injury.

Ferguson has a stock of general merchandise in his store on the corner west of Jerry Schooling's, which he is selling at prices 50 per cent below the cost of manufacture. If you want goods at your own price go and see Ferguson before the goods are all gone.

The county Commissioners have decided to remove the partition between the clerk's room and the Commissioners' at the Court House and make one large room of it; put in new desks and cases, and put a decent and respectable carpet on the floor, an improvement, long needed.

VAGRANCY.

An Item For The Boys.

Of late it is observable that a large number of boys of all ages, varying between 10 and 20, are permitted to frequent the saloons and gambling houses, not only in the daytime, but at all hours of the night, and it has been the source of no little complaint. The practice is reprehensible and should be stopped in some manner. The Sheriff or other police officers should do as the Sheriff of Lander county has done, give notice that hereafter he will strictly enforce the law and arrest every boy found on the street after 9 o'clock who cannot show a lawful reason for being out at that hour. The statute under which this matter falls we quote for the benefit of both parents and youngsters. It reads: "Every boy or male person under the age of twenty-one years who habitually remains away from his home or place of residence after the hour of 9 o'clock p. m., without some lawful and necessary business for so doing, frequents and passes his time in any gambling room, or other place where gambling is conducted, or any billiard room or other place where any such games are played, or any saloon or other place where intoxicating liquors are sold or drunk; or who, at any hour of the night or day, for his own amusement and pastime, without any legitimate business for so doing, frequents or loafs around any low den, house or other place of vice, infamy or immorality, where known thieves and other vicious and infamous persons resort or congregate; or who, at any hour of the night, either alone or otherwise, prowls about the streets or town disturbing the peace or quietude of the neighborhood by loud or unnecessary noise, or committing petty depredations, tricks, or pranks upon the person or property of other people, or abusive, obscene, or insulting language, or by any manner of rowdiness whatsoever, disturb or annoy the passerby, any lawful assembly of persons, or the neighborhood at large, is a vagrant and guilty of vagrancy, and upon conviction may be punished accordingly."

The penalty is imprisonment in the County jail for a term not exceeding ninety days.

Commissioners.

The County Commissioners met Monday for the transaction of regular business, Jos. Frey in the chair. The bonds of J. F. Bonham and D. W. Bryant were approved.

Ordered that $921.26 be transferred from general fund to salary fund.

Ordered that the public road running from Mayberry's lane south to Brown's road, be changed so as to run on the section line between sections 1 and 2, township 18N. 19E., instead of a quarter mile east where it now runs.

Ordered that T. F. Longley be allowed $200 from the general road fund to be applied on the Pyramid and Winnemucca road.

Ordered that M. E. Ward be allowed $50 to be applied on the road from Buffalo Springs to the county line.

Bids of R. L. Fulton and C. C. Powning for printing for the year ending Feb. 1, 1892, were read. Ordered that the county printing, so far as blanks are concerned, be awarded to R. L. Fulton as per bid and contract. Ordered that any county printing, so required by law, the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners shall cause the same to be done, and bills for the same to be presented to the county same as any other bills against the county.

Ordered that the Sheriff be allowed $125 per month for an under Sheriff, as prescribed in Sec. 16 of an Act fixing the salaries of the various county officers in the several counties of this State, approved March 11, 1879, and that no further allowance be made for deputies in the Sheriff's office.

Ordered that the Clerk have the partition removed between the Clerk's office and the Commissioners' room.

Ordered that the Reno Water Co. be allowed $10 per month to supply water for the cisterns and hydrants for the fire department.

Ordered that the Trustees of the fire department examine the cisterns and make such repairs as they may deem necessary.

Ordered that George Humphreys be allowed to purchase two pair of blankets for the Wadsworth calaboose—not to exceed $5 per pair.

After passing bills, the Board adjourned to meet March 7.

General O. O. Howard said the other day to a reporter at Chicago: "I believe every fair-minded American cares more for the principles which actuate conduct at West Point than for the particular case of Whittaker I believe that a hearty politeness, such as General Washington displayed when he declared that he would not suffer a negro to be more polite than he, would relieve the social question of much embarrassment at West Point as elsewhere."
